The Friends of St. John the Caregiver is an international Catholic organization promoting care for family caregivers. Its programs include: YourAgingParent.com, CatholicCaregivers.com and FSJC.org.

For my mother, who is blind and suffering from Multiple Sclerosis, and will be traveling by air to visit me in a few weeks. For her safe travel, and my strength to accommodate her newly-acquired needs.

For the repose of the soul of my father who passed on July 20, 2007 and for Mom as she adjusts to living without him.

For Mary and Jack.

For my husband who suffered a ruptured brain aneurysm nine years ago. Physically, I thank God, he has shown great improvement. However, he has short term memory loss, lacks initiation and motivation and it not able to converse.

For my elderly mother, Josephine, and for our household.

For all caregivers who are feeling fatigued.

For all my hospice patients and families.

For Indianapolis Archbishop Daniel Buechlein who is undergoing chemotherapy for recently diagnosed Hodgkins' Disease.

For my mother, Margaret. She is almost 84-years-old and is slowly declining. She is a very independent woman and the aging process with its limitations is very difficult for her. Please pray for her and for us, her four children who want to help her.

For my 94 year old mother-in-law who lost her 2 sons, her daughter in law and her brother in the last two years. She is very depressed and no longer wants to be in the nursing home. Please pray for my husband and I who are responsible for her care.

For Lorraine R. and Joseph Y.

For all the patients at Community Hospital of San Bernardino.

For my husband, Larry, who has brain cancer and my son, Mike, and me who are his caregivers.

For vulnerable adults who are living independently among us.

For Frankie A., a little boy with a brain tumor who is not expected to live very long.

For the caregivers of St. Gregory the Great Parish in Plantation FL.

For Josefa G.

St. John the Caregiver and Our Lady in Need, pray for us.

For all caregivers, shut-ins and care receivers; and for Sue and George, Sally and Rich and Aunt Kate.

Please pray for my husband, David, and for me, his caregiver, who no longer feels like a wife. For Louise B., Robert H., Jean and Bernard H., and Richard and Suzie H.

For my husband, Karl, who has now had a second stroke, please help him not to be so angry; and for me his caregiver.

For patience in caregiving.

For all of the family caregivers of St. Bernardine's parish in Baltimore, MD.

For Aleace, may she rest in peace; and for Rita, her caregiver, may she now find comfort and support from our loving God and Father in this time of grief.

For Gertrude and Robert, may they rest in peace; and for Denise, their caregiver, may she find comfort in Our Lord's gentle love for her.

For Mary F.

Please pray for Anthony and Alexis for peace, reconciliation, love and forgiveness.

For Fred and Yvonne H.

For Mely and her mother. May they find peace.

For Kathleen G., who is battling breast cancer and recently lost her husband; for Robin M., a young mother diagnosed with Crohn's Disease; and for Sydney and Joseph.

For Rita and Robert G., Rose and Bill G. and Denise and Joseph D.

For my mom and my aunt, who are 80 and live together, an hour away from me. I need the strength of Christ to continue to do what is best for them.

Please pray that I may have the patience and grace to help my Mom as she becomes less and less able to care for herself.

For Craig T., a 10-year-old cancer survivor, that his upcoming scans are clear and normal.

For my mom, Catherine A.

For my mom, who has cancer and Alzheimer's. Dear Lord, please give me strength.

Father, we bring before You Gwen, Your faithful servant, and her husband Eric, who is in the early stages of Alzheimer's. Please give us patience and understanding.

For Trish, Donna, Til and Robert and the patients in our hospital.

For my husband, Cliff, who is 61 and has early onset dementia. May I, as the caregiver, increase in the love of Jesus Christ and embrace this vocation as an offering of myself to Him.

Please pray for my mom, Eunice (who has Alzheimer's), and for me, her daughter and full-time caregiver.

For Aunt Flora, may she rest in peace, and for her family.

For Mary, may she rest in peace, and for Tony and his family.

Please pray for my father Charlie and my grandmother Dot who are passed. Also pray for my mother Joy who struggles each day to live without them. Dear Lord, Thank You for answering our prayers.

For people in nursing homes who wish they could be back home.
